Mariemont High School Staff and Students Recognized for Achievement by Board of Education

At their February 9th meeting, the Mariemont Board of Education recognized two teachers and ten students for outstanding achievement. Mariemont High School counselor Amanda Leszczuk was recognized for attaining National Board Certification, a rigorous and prestigious accreditation. Also from Mariemont High School, ten students were honored for their Rain Garden project which recently won a top $10,000 prize in the Lexus Eco-Challenge. Their faculty advisor, Mary Halsall, was also recognized. The students are Dillon Wilson, James Sayre, Cole Wilson, Cece Ebelhar, Carolyn Coates, McKenzie Miller, Jillian Kelly, Suzy Evans, Libby Peters and Stuart Simons. The Rain Garden project is now eligible for consideration for a national award of $50,000.
