

NEWS RELEASE

April 23, 2010
Mariemont High School

Mariemont Senior Earns Two Business Education Honors

Mariemont High School senior Michael Srofe is the recipient of the 2010 DECA National Marketing Education Honor Award. This award, given by DECA, a national association of business and marketing students, recognizes exemplary achievement in academic excellence, leadership skills, DECA involvement and school and community service.

In addition, the OBTA—an Association for Business Technology Educators and Industry Advisory Council—is pleased to announce the Michael Srofe is a 2009-2010 recipient of the Business and Industry Achievement Commendation. Michael has exhibited outstanding performance in Business Education and High School of Business courses.

Srofe is the son of John and Beth Srofe of Terrace Park. His business education teacher at Mariemont High School is Debbie Baas.

Photo: Mariemont High School senior Michael Srofe has been awarded the DECA National Marketing Education Honor and the OBTA Business and Industry Achievement Commendation.

Betsy Porst, Communications Coordinator
6743 Chestnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45227
bporst@mariemontschools.org