

NEWS RELEASE

May 6, 2010
Mariemont City Schools

Three Mariemont High School Actors Earn Cappie Nominations

Three student actors from Mariemont High School have been nominated for 2010 Cappie awards in this prestigious high school theater Critics and Awards Program. The winners will be announced at the Cappies of Greater Cincinnati Gala at the Aronoff Center on Sunday, May 30.

The three Mariemont High School nominees are all being honored for their performances in the school's fall production of Clue. The students are junior Kelsie Rutherford for Best Featured Actress in Clue for her role as Yvette; senior Maggie Deadrick for Best Comic Actress for her role as Mrs. Black, and junior Taylor Bailey for his role as Mr. Green.

Cappies began in 1999 and currently consists of seventeen programs across the United States and Canada. The program recognizes outstanding high school theater achievement in a wide array of categories. They honor the best on stage, behind stage and the critics who cover the season.

Photo:

Mariemont High School student actors Taylor Bailey, Maggie Deadrick and Kelsie Rutherford are all 2010 Cappie Award nominees.

Betsy Porst, Communications Coordinator
6743 Chestnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45227
bporst@mariemontschools.org