

NEWS RELEASE

October 21, 2009 - revised
Mariemont City Schools

Mariemont Students Create Pumpkin Art for Mercy St. Theresa

At Mariemont Elementary School, students are getting into the fall spirit...and sharing it with others. First grade students, with the help of substitute art teacher Jessica Blankenship, decorated pumpkins to add a touch of seasonal décor for the patients at Mercy St. Theresa Nursing Center in Mariemont.

Photos:

ME3Pumpkin – Mariemont Elementary first grader Anne Marie Stewart put the final touches on her painted pumpkin for the Mercy St. Theresa Center.

ME3Pumpkin2 – Elise Zito’s first grade class was busy painting pumpkins to bring fall into the Mercy St. Theresa Center.