

NEWS RELEASE

January 10, 2011
Mariemont City Schools

Mariemont Junior High Students Celebrate Spanish Cuisine

On January 6, Spanish language students at Mariemont Junior High were treated to a delicious surprise. Coinciding with “Los Reyes Magos” a religious holiday celebrated in many Spanish-speaking countries, the students enjoyed the traditional Spanish dish, paella.

MJHS Spanish instructor Maria Waltherr welcomed paella chef Hector Esteves, of Paella at Your Place, to prepare this iconic entrée for her students. Paella is a rice dish with meat, seafood and vegetables cooked in a large pan, a paellera, until a golden crust forms on the bottom.

The celebration of food and culture was received with mucho gusto from all the well-fed students.

Photo:

JHPaellaMan – Paella chef Hector Esteves shares his cooking secrets with students at Mariemont Junior High.

JHPaellaBigHit - Mariemont Junior High 8th graders give a big thumbs up to a surprise treat of paella in their Spanish class.