Mariemont High School Photo Contest Winners Selected

This spring, Mariemont High School once again held their school-wide Annual Photography Contest. Out of the 119 entries, eight photos were chosen as winners by two area professional photographers, Alison Connor of Happy Girl Photography and Becca Worple of Owenemma Photography.

The winning Mariemont High School photographers were: 1st place - junior Michael Weston; 2nd place - junior Rachael Colaw; 3rd place - freshman Olivia Erhardt; and Teacher Choice - junior Alli Lynch.

Additionally, Honorable Mention honors were awarded to works submitted by freshman Sarah Blatt-Herold, Rachael Colaw and Michael Weston.

Michael Weston's (1st place) and Alli Lynch's (Teacher Choice) photos will be permanently hung near the school auditorium. All winning photos are currently on display in the school art gallery and will be featured during Mariemont High School's Night of the Arts on May 18.
