

NEWS RELEASE

August 31, 2010
Mariemont City Schools

Mariemont High School Juniors Excel in Global Essay Competition

Four Mariemont High School students were selected as winners in the 2010 Ayn Rand Institute (ARI) Anthem essay contest. Katie Wray won Third Place in this prestigious writing competition and James Donnelly, Karyn Georgilis and Kate Hassey were chosen as semi-finalists. All four students are currently juniors and the contest was based on their submissions from last spring.

The annual ARI essay contest has world-wide reach and received over 16,000 essays during their 2010 competition.

Photo: Mariemont juniors James Donnelly, Karyn Georgilis, Kate Hassey and Katie Wray had winning essays in the 2010 Ayn Rand Institute Anthem essay contest.

Betsy Porst, Communications Coordinator
6743 Chestnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45227
bporst@mariemontschools.org