

NEWS RELEASE

February 23, 2012
Mariemont City Schools

Elementary Artists from Mariemont Schools Exhibit in Columbus

Original art pieces from six elementary students from the Mariemont City Schools district have been selected for display in youth art exhibits sponsored by the Ohio Art Education Association in Columbus.

The Youth Art Month Exhibition will be on display at the State Teacher's Retirement Systems building in Columbus this March. Featured student artists include Mariemont Elementary 3rd grader Josie Holt and 6th grader Ericka Pullen and Terrace Park Elementary 6th grader Will Doran.

An additional exhibit, the 32st Annual Young People's Art Exhibition can be found at the Rhodes State Office Tower also in Columbus. The March show will feature selected artwork from Mariemont Elementary 4th graders Erin Kelly and Andrew Mehl, and from 5th grader Cora Dupre from Terrace Park Elementary.

The elementary students in Mariemont City Schools are taught by art instructors Melissa Rupe, Shelley Komrska and Kelly Meyers.

Photos:

ElemArtists– Artwork from students Ericka Pullen, Andrew Mehl, Erin Kelly and Josie Holt of Mariemont Elementary and Cora Dupre and Will Doran of Terrace Park Elementary (bottom) were chosen for youth art exhibits in Columbus.

Betsy Porst, Communications Coordinator
6743 Chestnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45227
bporst@mariemontschools.org