

TURNER CONSTRUCTION

Company Background

Turner Construction Company was founded in 1902 by Henry C. Turner. Throughout his career, Mr. Turner referred to his clients as “respected friends.” The company quickly built a reputation for integrity, teamwork, and commitment. These values remain true today and are the reason we were able to celebrate our 100th anniversary.

In 1999 Turner Construction Company and Turner Corporation were acquired by HOCHTIEF, Germany's largest construction firm and one of the world's leading international construction companies. The Turner Corporate Headquarters is located in Dallas, Texas and the Turner Construction Company headquarters is located in NYC, NY.

Turner Construction Company has been doing business under this name for 107 years.

With a nationwide network of offices and a presence in a dozen countries, Turner has the most comprehensive local office network in the industry. We are the only builder to combine broad geographic reach with local delivery, providing our clients with both the extensive resources they demand and the close-to-home focus they desire. Turner has 45 offices across the United States including four offices in Ohio: Cincinnati, Columbus, Cleveland, and Lathrop in Toledo.

Nationally, Turner employs 5,800 professionals. Turner's Ohio offices employ a combined staff of 418 full time professionals. There are 185 local full time employees in Cincinnati.

The Turner Corporation was established as a holding company for Turner Construction Company and a number of other subsidiaries on June 1, 1984. Turner was acquired in 1999 by HOCHTIEF AG, one of the world's leading international construction companies.

Locally, Turner's Cincinnati office is managed by Ken Jones, Vice President and General Manager.
